3   SEC. 1001. ADDITIONAL ASSISTANT SECRETARY POSITION.

4       (a) ADDITIONAL ASSISTANT SECRETARY POSITION
5   TO ENABLE IMPROVED MANAGEMENT OF NUCLEAR EN-
6   ERGY ISSUES.—

7           (1) IN GENERAL.—Section 203(a) of the De-
8       partment of Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C.
9       7133(a)) is amended by striking “six Assistant Sec-
10      retaries” and inserting “7 Assistant Secretaries”.

11          (2) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of 12      Congress that the leadership for departmental mis-
13      sions in nuclear energy should be at the Assistant
14      Secretary level.

15   (b) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—

16          (1) TITLE 5.—Section 5315 of title 5, United 17      States Code, is amended by striking “Assistant Sec-
18      retaries of Energy (6)” and inserting “Assistant
19      Secretaries of Energy (7)”.

20          (2) DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY ORGANIZATION
21      ACT.—The table of contents for the Department of

1 Energy Organization Act (42 U.S.C. 7101 note) is 2 amended—

3 (A) by striking “Section 209” and insert-
4 ing “Sec. 209”;

5 (B) by striking “213.” and inserting “Sec.
6 213.”;

7 (C) by striking “214.” and inserting “Sec.
8 214.”;

9 (D) by striking “215.” and inserting “Sec.
10 215.”; and

11 (E) by striking “216.” and inserting “Sec.
12 216.”.

13 SEC. 1002. OTHER TRANSACTIONS AUTHORITY.

14 Section 646 of the Department of Energy Organiza-
15 tion Act (42 U.S.C. 7256) is amended by adding at the 16 end the following:

17 “(g)(1) In addition to other authorities granted to the 18 Secretary under law, the Secretary may enter into other 19 transactions on such terms as the Secretary may deem 20 appropriate in furtherance of research, development, or 21 demonstration functions vested in the Secretary. Such 22 other transactions shall not be subject to the provisions
23 of section 9 of the Federal Nonnuclear Energy Research
24 and Development Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5908) or section
25 152 of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (42 U.S.C. 2182).

1 “(2)(A) The Secretary shall ensure that—

2 “(i) to the maximum extent the Secretary de-3 termines practicable, no transaction entered into 4 under paragraph (1) provides for research, develop-
5 ment, or demonstration that duplicates research, de-6 velopment, or demonstration being conducted under 7 existing projects carried out by the Department;

8 “(ii) to the extent the Secretary determines
9 practicable, the funds provided by the Government
10 under a transaction authorized by paragraph (1) do
11 not exceed the total amount provided by other par-
12 ties to the transaction; and

13 “(iii) to the extent the Secretary determines 14 practicable, competitive, merit-based selection proce-
15 dures shall be used when entering into transactions
16 under paragraph (1).

17 “(B) A transaction authorized by paragraph (1) may 18 be used for a research, development, or demonstration
19 project only if the Secretary makes a written determina-
20 tion that the use of a standard contract, grant, or coopera-
21 tive agreement for the project is not feasible or appro-
22 priate.

23 “(3)(A) The Secretary shall protect from disclosure, 24 including disclosure under section 552 of title 5, United

1 States Code, for up to 5 years after the date the informa-
2 tion is received by the Secretary—

3 “(i) a proposal, proposal abstract, and sup-
4 porting documents submitted to the Department in 5 a competitive or noncompetitive process having the 6 potential for resulting in an award under paragraph 7 (1) to the party submitting the information; and

8 “(ii) a business plan and technical information
9 relating to a transaction authorized by paragraph
10 (1) submitted to the Department as confidential
11 business information.

12 “(B) The Secretary may protect from disclosure, for 13 up to 5 years after the information was developed, any 14 information developed pursuant to a transaction under 15 paragraph (1) which developed information is of a char-
16 acter that it would be protected from disclosure under sec-
17 tion 552(b)(4) of title 5, United States Code, if obtained
18 from a person other than a Federal agency.

19 “(4) Not later than 90 days after the date of enact-
20 ment of this subsection, the Secretary shall prescribe
21 guidelines for using other transactions authorized by para-
22 graph (1). Such guidelines shall be published in the Fed-
23 eral Register for public comment under rulemaking proce-
24 dures of the Department.

1 “(5) The authority of the Secretary under this sub-
2 section may be delegated only to an officer of the Depart-
3 ment who is appointed by the President by and with the 4 advice and consent of the Senate and may not be delegated 5 to any other person.

6 “(6)(A) Not later than September 31, 2006, the 7 Comptroller General of the United States shall report to 8 Congress on the Department’s use of the authorities
9 granted under this section, including the ability to attract 10 nontraditional government contractors and whether addi-
11 tional safeguards are needed with respect to the use of 12 such authorities.

13 “(B) In this section, the term ‘nontraditional Govern-14 ment contractor’ has the same meaning as the term ‘non-15 traditional defense contractor’ as defined in section 845(e)
16 of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year
17 1994 (Public Law 103–160; 10 U.S.C. 2371 note).”.
